Psalm 42:4-5, says, "These things I remember, as I pour out my soul: how I went with them through and led them in procession to the house of God, with glad shouts and songs of thanksgiving, a multitude keeping festival...Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God." Romans 14:17 says, "For the Kingdom of God is not food and drink but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit."

Last year at this time, I was preparing to leave on a mission trip to Armenia in October with seven other sisters and brothers in Christ. We were so thrilled about what God had instore for our team as we celebrated 25 years of Project AGAPE and the impact it has had in the lives of so many people and families. Our eyes, our voices, and our actions all beamed with excitement and anticipation of the celebration, ministry and mission that lay ahead. Once there, we witnessed and saw Christ in so many ways and in so many people. We were touched as we heard the stories and life journeys of so many people that profoundly changed our lives and how we see the world around us.

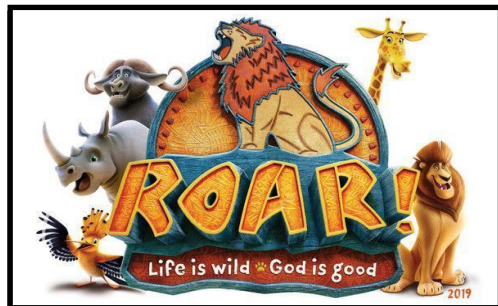

I wonder if I, if we have this attitude toward our Christianity and toward our church each day, each week, each year. Do we wake-up each morning looking forward to serving the Christ we claim as our Messiah and to serving all people as He did? Do we come here on Sunday beaming with excitement and anticipation of what will happen? Do our eyes, voices, and actions tell others that we are excited about Jesus and our church? Do we look at church as a place where we can meet new people, make new friends, and be challenged to serve God in different ways?

I know that I cannot answer yes to all of these questions every week. However, this is something that I should be striving for in my daily and weekly life. I need to be excited every day!!!

May we start each week with a joyful heart, ready to allow the Holy Spirit into the very depths of our souls so that we will be excited when we worship at Archdale UMC and when we go out into the community to serve.

See you Sunday!

In Christ, Allan
