We will celebrate Thanksgiving Day in less than a month. Thanksgiving was set aside as a holiday so that our country would remember the blessings we have and to give thanks for those blessings. Again this year, it will be a little different as opposed to those in the distant past. The uncertainty of whether the economy will be ok in the future, as well as the lingering uncertainty about war and terrorism are all on our minds. So many changes are constantly taking place.

And yet we do have a lot to be thankful for here in the Archdale-Trinity Community. Compared to the world, our standard of living is still very, very good. We have friends, we have family, and we have God's church here at Archdale UMC. And most important, we have a God who cares for us very much.

In the Gospel of John, Jesus said these words, "As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. ¹⁰If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. ¹¹I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. (John 15:9-11)" Also, Paul writes to the church in Rome, "³⁵Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? ...³⁷No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. ³⁸For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, ³⁹neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord. (Romans 8:35-39)."

No matter what we are going through in our lives, God is there for us. Whether it is death, sickness, a failed marriage, a bad friendship, trouble with parents, trouble with children, layoffs, or economic slowdowns, God will always be there for us and our families.

As we eat with our family and friends this Thanksgiving Day, may we remember just how blessed we are. May we remember to be thankful for what we have and strive better to share with others. May we remember the words of Jesus and Paul who remind us to be thankful for a Savior who loves us far more than we will ever realize. Let us be thankful and let God know it through our prayers.

Have a great Thanksgiving.

In Christ,
Allan

NEWSPAPER COVERAGE

The Randolph County newspaper featured articles on September 15th and September 17th on Kameryn Walden. She is a 4-H'er from Randolph County who attended the 10th annual NC association of County Commissioners Youth Summit in Greensboro on Aug. 23 – 24. This is a multi-year initiative to increase youth involvement in county government. This initiative helps youth learn more about county government as well as how to become more involved in local decision making. She joined 77 youth and adults from 66 counties at the event. She was pictured with Maxton McDowell, Kenney Kidd, Hope Haywood and David Allen in the article on the 17th. Way to go Kameryn!
